We may ask you to provide clarification or more information to help us resolve your complain.

We will provide our decision

We normally provide our decision in writing, within 90 days of receiving a complaint. It will include:

- a summary of the complaint
- the results of our investigation
- our decision to make an offer to resolve the complaint or deny it, and an explanation of our decision

Help us resolve your complaint sooner:

- Make your complaint as soon as possible
- Reply promptly if we ask you for more information
- Keep copies of relevant documents, such as letters, emails and conversation notes.

A word about legal advice:

You always have the right to go to a lawyer or seek other ways of resolving your dispute at any time. A lawyer can advise you of your legal options. There are time limits for taking legal action. Delays could limit your options and legal rights later. Please consult your province for your time & statute limitations.

If our decision is delayed

If we cannot provide you with our decision within 90 days, we will:

- inform you of the delay
- explain why our decision is delayed, and
- give you a new date for our decision

You may be eligible for the independent dispute resolution service offered by the Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments (OBSI).

If you are not satisfied with our decision

There are alternate methods of dispute resolution available to you If you are dissatisfied with our response.

- You can escalate your concern to the Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments (“OBSI”) within 180 days after you have received our substantive response. The OBSI is an independent national industry-based dispute resolution agency for consumers of financial services. If this is an option you’re considering, there is more on OBSI and their process below.
- Arbitration, and
- Litigation/Civil action, a lawyer can advise of you of your options.

If you are a Québec resident

If you are a Quebec resident, you may request that your file be transferred to the Autorité des Marchés Financier (“AMF”). Once your file is transferred, the AMF will examine it and provide you with a response. Please note that transferring your file to the AMF does not interrupt the prescriptive period for civil remedies.

Taking your complaint to OBSI

You may be eligible for OBSI’s free and independent dispute resolution service if.

- we do not provide our decision within 90 days after you made your complaint, or
- you are not satisfied with our decision

OBSI can recommend compensation of up to $350,000.

OBSI’s service is available to clients of our firm. This does not restrict your ability to take a complaint to a dispute resolution service of your choosing at your own expense, or to bring an action in court. Keep in mind there are time limits for taking legal action.
